Demanding The Impossible By Slavoj Žižek

Demanding the Impossible finds Slavoj Zizek waxing passionately on a variety of subjects -- financial crises, popular uprisings, political upheavals and, indeed, political paranoia -- with a kind of admirable passion that reminds of seminal works composed by the likes of Orwell and Chomsky, albeit without the force of wit and style that distinguishes them as writers (that they have more of an impact on our social consciousness seems self-evident).
